

Personal Info

Hey - the application to the court was sent a short time ago. Amicable. Based on interactions between lawyers, we don't expect them to contest, but actually to support. We're filing in a Toronto court and asking that it be on a "commercial list" which means a court that deals with more sophisticated commercial matters. Could be approved within hours.

iMessage

